

Consent for Court-Ordered Evaluations

The AHB Center for Behavioral Health and Wellness has been appointed to provide an evaluation for you and/or your child. The purpose of this evaluation is to provide information to the Courts that will inform their decision-making. We do not make final decisions about your case. We will not provide therapy or legal advice in your case.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Principles of confidentiality and privilege do not apply for this kind of evaluation. Information gathered and provided to use may be shared with the Department of Social Services (if involved), attorneys, a guardian ad litem (if one is appointed), and the Court. We will utilize our clinical judgment regarding the types of information that needs to be shared.
